

NICSA NOVA Awards – Emerging Leader Award Winner: Courtney Farrell

September 24, 2019

Foreside is excited to announce that Courtney Farrell, Director of our Dealer Services department has been named a winner of NICSA's prestigious Emerging Leader Awards.

This award recognizes investment professionals under the age of 40, demonstrating excellence in performance innovation with outstanding contribution to the development of the asset management industry. They received many high-quality submissions so to be distinguished amongst so many worth nominations is truly outstanding!

In the six years Courtney has been with Foreside, she has shown tremendous leadership, a yearn for learning, and a passion for helping clients. She not only manages the Dealer Services team but has proven herself as a "go-to" resource at Foreside, the Client Development group, the Legal team, as well as Foreside clients and intermediaries.

Courtney is an excellent resource for our clients and an integral part of their success and Foreside's overall success!

To see the full list of winners, click HERE.